Hi All

We have been very pleased with the media coverage we go about the launch of the public consultation work. There is clearly a great deal of interest both in Wales and beyond which is great to see.

I tried to email [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] with emails addresses I could find online, but they have both been bounced back.

I am keen to set up a presentation with them and yourselves so if someone could ping over their current email address that would be much appreciated.

We are currently booking venues for face to face consultation events which will be happening very soon in the Snowdonia area.

Will keep you posted on developments.

Cheers
